

the assumption that the student successfully attempts/passes all assessments on the first attempt. In order to be successful during program approval and accreditation review as well as for the College of Education and Human Services uses a system called Anthology Portfolio to house all assessments, field evaluations, and college surveys for educator preparation programs. A Student Fee is assessed during the semester of clinical practice to fund professional development opportunities for teachers throughout clinical experiences.

$128 Georgia Assessment for the Certification of Educators (GACE) Program Assessment Fee

1

$30 Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment

$30 - $350 Personal Liability Insurance (must be maintained while enrolled in program)²:
For Not-Currently-Employed Teachers: $30-45 ($15/year): SPAGE Membership for Liability Insurance (<https://membership.pageinc.org/>)
For Currently-Employed Teachers without a District Waiver: $350 ($175/year for 2 years): PAGE Membership for Liability Insurance (<https://membership.pageinc.org/>)

$193 GACE Content Assessments³

$100 Student Teaching Fee
